WINES BY THE GLASS

LUGANA Ca Del Lago, 2012, Veneto

Tangy and refreshing, with a well balanced mix of floral, vegetal and fruity sensations as well as elegant hints in the aftertaste, as is typical in this area. 6oz $10.50 Bottle $45

PINOT GRIGIO 2012, Veneto

Pinot Grigio is one of the top, internationally renowned Italian grape varieties. This wine shows good mid-palate weight and fruit. The nose has floral aromas with overtones of pistachios and just a hint of honey and a long, clean citrus finish. 6oz $10 Bottle $40

SAUV BLANC Astrolabe, 2012, New Zealand

This bright, juicy white delivers succulent notes of passion fruit, honeydew melon, Key lime and Asian pear, which together make a clear, focused and terrifically intense chorus that persists on the long, terrific finish. 6oz $12 Bottle $60

THE MISCHIEF Organized Crime, 2011, Niagara

An aromatic blend. Voluptuous, big and rich in both appearance and on the palate. Very complex beginning with spice, ginger and a floral hint progressing to a bountiful ripe basket of tropical and stone fruits finishing with grapefruit acidity. The blend is estate Gewurztraminer, Viognier and Sauvignon Blanc. 6oz $11.50 Bottle $57

CHIANTI RUFINA Colognole, 2008, Tuscany

The Colognole estate is run by two brothers, Mario and Cesare Coda Nunzinate, in this small appellation just northwest of Chianti Classico. The wines have attained depth and complexity, while retaining the unique aromas and ageing capability. 6oz $11 Bottle $55

AGLIANICO San Gregoria, 2011, Campania

A full-bodied, ripe wine with fine tannins and a long finish. Aglianico continues to impress as a grape variety, this is one of the best values in Italian wine. 6oz $11 Bottle $55

MEMORO Piccini, N/V, Italy

A warm, modern style with notes of dark cherries, figs and coffee in a delicate oak frame. Generous on the palate, revealing a bright fruity core. Concentrated, exposing great structure, yet harmonious and soft. Long, dense finish. 6oz $15 Bottle $75

CAB SAUV Grayson Cellars, 2011, California

The 2011 Grayson Cabernet shows a dark ruby colour with a rich nose of ripe, dark cherries, blackberries and hints of black pepper. This full bodied wine finishes with hints of toasted french oak. 6oz $13 Bottle $64
