Amarone della Valpolicella

- 20 Tedeschi 2003
21 Brigaldara 2003
22 Luigi Righetti "Roari" 2003
Righetti's reserve Amarone. The name "Capitel de'Roari" is derived from the local way to say "many oaks" and refers to the various plots of vineyards where grapes are obtained. The vineyards, which are situated on the finest hills of the Valpolicella Classico, are well cultivated, limited in production and high in quality. The land, rich in clay and sun, is a key element that encourages concentration of sugar and flavour.
- 23 Luigi Righetti 2004
24 Cesari 2004
Made from 70% Corvina, 25% Rondinella and 5% Molinara grapes dried for 3-4 months in drying lodges. This process produces a wonderfully rich and complex wine with intense fruits of the forest flavours and a finish that lingers long and warm.

Full-bodied and rich, backed by structured, yet velvety tannins.

Valpolicella

- 32 "Mithas" Valpolicella Superiore, Corte St. Alda 2001

136 Classico, Brigaldara 2003
1 "Campo Santa Lena", Classico, Villa Monteleone 2006

26 "Ca Del Merlo", Quintarelli, 1999
Known as "The Master of the Veneto," Giuseppe Quintarelli makes some of the world's most sought-after wines. From aperitifs to digestifs, his limited production Amarones, Reciotos, and Valpolicellas are the benchmark for excellence. Their greatness stems from the inherent quality of the terroir and natural talent of this master, whose concept of vintage approval and strict grape selection rival the great Chateau d'Yquem.

This wine is full-bodied, round, and intensely flavored of cherry, cedar, tobacco, toast, herbs, and blackberry
- 4463 Cakebread Cellars "Benchland Select", Napa Valley 2001
2001 Benchland Select Cabernet Sauvignon offers a seductive aroma of perfectly ripened black fruits laden with scents of black figs, chocolate and smoky, toasty oak. On the palate, the wine delivers opulent, mouth-filling, ripe blackberry and black plum flavors balanced by firm tannins and crisp natural acidity
- 4465 Pine Ridge "Rutherford", Napa Valley 2003
A briary nose is marked with blackberry, ripe cherry, dried cherry, anise seed, tobacco and mineral as well as slight vanilla and barrel toast elements. Ripe sweet berry and cherry notes mingle with creamy mocha flavors and hints of tobacco and minerals that carry through the medium to full palate. The firm finish boasts toast, cherries, black peppercorn, cherry pie and slight tobacco nuances.
- 4471 Heitz Cellars, Napa Valley 2001
- 4475 Spottswoode, Napa Valley 2002
If Chateau Margaux were making wine in Napa, this might be what it would taste like. An extraordinary nose of black currants, chocolate, sweet licorice, and a hint of toast jumps from the glass of this wine. Wine Advocate 97 pts.
- 4478 Tanbark Hill, Philip Togni Vineyard, Napa Valley 2002
- 4477 Whitehall Lane Winery, Napa Valley 2003

4461 Insignia, Joseph Phelps 2001 (Napa)
The 2001 Insignia is an inky/purpled- colored effort representing a return to the superb quality of such vintages as 1997. Aged in 100% new French oak, this blockbuster reveals gorgeous aromas of melted licorice, creme de cassis, liquid minerals, and hints of chocolate and spice box. The finish is long, full-bodied, opulent, and voluptuous. Considerable tannin is largely concealed by the lavish richness, extract, and glycerin. — 95 Points
